

Summer Term 1

Summer term spellings will be revision of the key spelling rules which are introduced in year 5/6. Each week there will be some spellings which are from the statutory list. Children should be familiar with these rules.

To be tested Monday 13 th April	To be tested Monday 20 th April	To be tested Monday 27 th April	To be tested Tuesday 5 th May	To be tested Monday 18 th May
Words ending in – ant, –ance/–ancy, – ent, –ence/–ency	Words ending in – able and –ible. Words ending in – ably and –ibl	Words that end in ‘– cious’ or ‘–tious’	Words that end in ‘cial’ and ‘tial’	Adding suffixes beginning with vowel letters to words ending in –fe
brilliant confident elegant innocence experience reliance tolerance emergency exaggerate existence	predictable enjoyable invisible reasonable incredible unbelievable accessibly comfortably explanation forty	delicious suspicious ambitious nervous conscious victorious cautious excessive experiment nuisance	official artificial beneficial essential confidential superficial substantial exceptional privilege famous	referring referred preferring transferred reference referee preference transference frequently pronunciation

