

Kneesall C of E Primary School

Kneesall C of E Primary School is a small, rural Church of England primary school nestled in the picturesque village of Kneesall. With a 0.5 form entry including a nursery for 3 and 4-year-olds, our school benefits from an idyllic setting overlooking open countryside and is just a stone's throw from our historic church, St. Bartholomew's. We pride ourselves on fostering a warm, nurturing environment rooted in strong Christian values, where every pupil is encouraged to flourish both academically and personally.

KS2 Teacher with SENCO Responsibility

Are you an enthusiastic and dedicated teacher looking for a rewarding role in a supportive rural setting? Kneesall C of E Primary School is seeking a passionate KS2 Teacher with SENCO responsibility to join our close-knit team from September 2026. We welcome applications for full or part-time hours.

About the Role
